INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTEER ASSIGNMENTS

Starting now, a wide selection of international work camps for 2024 can once again be found on the website of the Service Civil International – Deutscher Zweig e.V. \(SCI\). These programs are particularly interesting for students, as they can experience and achieve a lot in a short time for little money.

Work camps are volunteer projects in international groups, where ten to twenty participants from different countries support social, cultural, or ecological projects. This is a good opportunity to gain intercultural experiences, improve language skills, and expand social competencies. In addition to participating, interested individuals also have the opportunity to lead a camp themselves. We can also certify such camp leadership as an educational internship.

The SCI is one of the oldest peace and volunteer organizations and offers, with partners in about 90 countries and on all continents, over 1,000 two- to three-week work camps. Additionally, SCI conducts long-term services in various funding programs.

WORKCAMP

For anyone who wants to make a difference in a short space of time

- Work and live together for 2-3 weeks with a group of international volunteers
- support a community project
- make new friends
- learn about the topic at work- and studyparts

Work and Studycamps 2024

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

In our work and study camp you will...

- work and live with a group of international volunteers for 2-3 weeks
- delve deeper into the history of the national socialism in Germany
- support a charitable project
- make new friends

Mittelbau-Dora Concentration Camp Memorial: Create visibility (22 June - 6 July 2024)
The "Create Visibility" work and study camp with the Mittelbau-Dora concentration camp memorial is actively involved in the landscaping of the authentic site. The work to be done at the work camp is part of a larger project: the remains of the foundations of former barracks are to be gradually made visible again. This year, work will be completed on a foundation that has already been started, the so-called "infirmary". The study part of the program includes tours, working with various sources, exchanging ideas with each other and with joint digitally supported project work, as well as excursions. Accommodation will be in beautiful shared rooms.

Ehrenhain Zeithain Memorial: Working on a history trail (13.07.-27.07.)
There is a "history trail" on the site of the former camp for prisoners of war in Zeithain. This trail will be maintained and renovated as part of the work camp. Landscaping, gardening and construction work will be carried out. The study part focuses on the persecution of prisoners of war in Germany during the Second World War and their fates, the development and preservation of historical sites of National Socialist crimes as well as today's approach to and the significance of remembrance and commemoration in Germany and in the participants' home countries.

Neuengamme Concentration Camp Memorial: Defending Remembrance (20.07.-03.08.2024)
The workcamp deals with the massive shift to the right and the rise of right-wing, e.g. racist, anti-Semitic or anti-queer attitudes and attacks worldwide and their impact on commemoration. The practical work supports the work of the memorial by cleaning information boards and memorials, gardening as well as supporting the conversion of a building into a seminar house. Furthermore, the workcamp offers volunteers the opportunity to learn a lot about the history of Neuengamme concentration camp through the discussion with experts on the field. During the workcamp, the volunteers can document their experiences in the memorial's social media account and in articles in the local newspaper.

The Lichtenburg concentration camp memorial, located in the small town of Prettin, is a place of learning and remembrance with a modern exhibition about the former Lichtenburg concentration camp. The participants of the workcamp build furniture from Euro pallets for the entrance to the memorial as well as clean and maintain the outdoor area. Furthermore, the volunteers develop an art project about the public's perception of Lichtenburg castle and the memorial site. Finally, they prepare and hold a public event to present the project and the work they have done.

NS Forced Labour Documentation Centre Berlin-Schöneweide: Searching for Traces of Forced Labour (11.08.-24.08.2024)
At various stations in Berlin, the camp will go on a photographic search for traces of Nazi forced labor and explore the effects that the Second World War and Nazi forced labor had on the city. The results of the search for clues will be incorporated into an exhibition that will be shown at the Documentation Center and opened at the end of the camp. The study camp takes place in cooperation with the International Youth Meeting Center of the Documentation Center for Nazi Forced Labor. The volunteers will be accommodated in the youth meeting center.

recreation and meeting centre Heideruh: Never again fascism! Never again war! (11.08.-30.08.2024)
In 1945, the recreation and meeting place "Heideruh" was built by the political persecutees of National Socialism, e.g. for children whose parents were persecuted, lived underground, were imprisoned in concentration camps or were murdered. To this day, Heideruh serves primarily as a place of recreation and encounter for people who speak out against fascist ideology and who stand up for peace and a more just society. The work consists of different activities, for example woodwork, the repair of the barefoot path and the intergenerational playground created by previous work camps. The study part will deal with the history of World War II, but also with questions about war and peace today.

AROUND THE CAMPUS

LET'S GET INVOLVED TOGETHER! -
FOR MORE TOGETHERNESS!

What we want:

- Establish a student group
- Bring color into the rather dull everyday life of refugees
- Develop and implement ideas together on how we can support refugees in Geisenheim
- 1-2 meetings per month to plan and implement ideas

Why you should get involved with us:

- Gain experiences that enrich your life and shape you personally
- Work together for a better future
- Recognition and appreciation
- Positive impact on your resume

Contact us at StudIP „Gemeinsam engagieren wir uns“ or internationalbuddy@hs-gm.de.

The International Office wants to initiate a student group that advocates for refugees in Geisenheim. The idea is to distribute responsibilities among many heads, so that each person only has to make a small, manageable contribution. This should enable all students to engage in volunteer work alongside their studies. The activities of the group should be decided by the group itself and will certainly depend on individual skills. Examples could include organizing game afternoons, homework assistance, translation services, etc.

GENERATIVE AI IN STUDIES, TEACHING AND EXAMINATIONS (MALTE PERSIKE)

July 4, 2024, 1:00 PM - 5:00 PM

The interactive workshop provides a practical and application-oriented insight into how generative AI systems can be effectively integrated into study, teaching, and examination. Participants will be enabled not only to understand AI technologies but also to actively use them as tools in their teaching and learning processes. Practical scenarios will be played out together, demonstrating how generative AI can support teaching, learning, and examination. The workshop highlights the opportunities and challenges of AI-based technologies.

Participants will have the opportunity to try out AI-based tools directly and evaluate how they could fit into their teaching plans. Short inputs will guide participants through the latest AI applications and demystify the underlying technology. At the end of the workshop, participants will be able to actively use, evaluate, and reflect on generative AI tools, enabling them to apply these tools directly in the university.

REPORT ON OUR TEAM'S PARTICIPATION IN THE GERMAN UNIVERSITY SPORTS CHAMPIONSHIP „ULTIMATE FRISBEE“ IN KARLSRUHE ON JUNE 8/9, 2024

On June 8-9, 2024, the German University Ultimate Frisbee Championship took place, hosted by the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT). For the first time, a team from Hochschule Geisenheim participated. Fourteen students from Hochschule Geisenheim, led by coach Tim Heinzl, competed in Karlsruhe and represented HGU with great dignity.

Upon arrival in Karlsruhe on Friday evening, it became evident that the playing level of the attending teams was in a completely different league. It was clear to see the preparation and training that some teams had undergone Friday evening.

However, most teams also had proper coaches or clubs supporting them. We are very proud of our team for not being intimidated. The goal under the circumstances was not to win the championship, but rather „participation is everything“ and „not losing any game 0-7,“ and our team achieved this goal across all 6 games. Congratulations!

Two teams were disqualified due to having too few women in their lineup. Therefore, we achieved 16th place out of 18 overall, even though we had by far the fewest points. Nevertheless, our players consistently gave 100%, whether on the field or during the continuous questioning about where Geisenheim is and why we have a team ready to play.

Our dedicated and fighting players of the Ultimate Frisbee team certainly left an impression and were warmly mentioned and celebrated during the award ceremony.

For everyone in the team, according to coach Tim Heinzl, it was an exceptional, human, and also sporting experience, and everyone takes incredibly valuable experience from this weekend.

Recap

To protect against heat: Heat action plan launched

Together with the department of occupational health and safety we have drawn up a heat action plan for HGU. The aim is to efficiently communicate the health consequences of climate change especially extreme heat, to achieve risk behaviour adapted to the situation and to establish preventative options for action. Relational preventive measures include changes to the working environment while behavioural preventive measures can be implemented by each individual. The plan includes both short-term immediate measures that can be implemented without major investment and long-term measures that should always be taken into account when planning and implementing (structural) campus development.

The background:

Global warming caused by climate change has resulted in an increased frequency and duration of heat events in many regions of the world, including Germany. Heat can have a severe impact on the health of the human body and periods of heat can also pose a problem for the healthcare system. An increase in the frequency of heatwaves is accompanied by an increase in heat-related deaths. In addition to climate protection measures, joint efforts to prevent the effects of heat on people can provide a remedy, e.g. through heat action plans.

And now?

We started the implementation process with a kick-off event at the end of May. There was a presentation by the company doctor on the effects of heat, UV protection, cancer prevention, summer nutrition and heat protection products (including UV shirts, caps and drinking bottles) were handed out to employees working in the outdoor areas. It may even continue this year with outdoor work and recreation places on the campus with seating in the shade (the planning process is still ongoing). More detailed information will follow when the time comes. In addition, some university buildings are to be greened. Therefore, we are organising a summer school together with the Department of Urban Horticulture and Plant Utilization in spring 2025. For more information or if you have any questions, please contact us or our colleagues in Occupational Safety!

It is one of the younger formats of the Rheingau Music Festival and yet it already has its own tradition: Since 2017, once every summer, a cool groove fills the Geisenheimer Domplatz when the Rheingau Music Festival invites you to „Soul am Dom.“ Following last year’s great success, Waterproof brings its spectacular soul sound to the stage once again! The friendly band from Aschaffenburg has often stirred up the atmosphere at summer and castle festivals, proving that Waterproof is much more than a group of talented musicians: they are a well-rehearsed band that understands each other on stage – and you can hear it!

EVENTS IN GEISENHEIM

GEISENHEIM LINDEN FESTIVAL

On the third weekend in July (19th-22nd), the university town of Geisenheim invites you to its traditional Lindenfest. Under the motto „The City, the Wine, Your Festival,“ four areas form the pillars: The WeinErlebnisdorf (Wine Experience Village) in front of the town hall and around the lime tree, the DomTown as the party district on Bischof-Blum-Platz in front of the Rheingau Cathedral, and Quartier R - Rheingau Creative. The fourth quarter, the City of Children behind the town hall along Winkeler Straße.

In the WeinErlebnisdorf, local winemakers pour the best from their cellars. The stage blends perfectly into the greenery of the lime tree. DomTown in front of the Rheingau Cathedral is organized as the party district. Geisenheim shops in the city center invite you to a Sunday shopping event.

During the „Stunde der Heimat“ (Hour of Homeland) on Monday afternoon, two Golden Linden Leaves will be awarded.

Date: July 19th - 22nd, 2024
